

FREE ALL POLITICAL PRISONERS

Their names are familiar to us. They are behind bars for their revolutionary actions. They come from all walks of life. They are of many races, creeds and colors. All are revolutionaries, and our lives were changed by their efforts. A popular slogan about our people locked down is 'remember, we're still here.' But how many of us are doing something about it?

Anarchist Black Cross Federation

abcf.net